

Subject Access Request Forms

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) you have the right to ask any organisation whether they hold your personal data and to see a copy of that information. If you wish to access your personal data from Brightsource please complete the form(s) (below).

You will be asked to supply proof of identity. We ask for this as we need to protect your personal data by ensuring that it is actually you requesting it, and not someone pretending to be you.

Your request will be actioned within 30 calendar days from when Brightsource receive the fully completed form and all the relevant information we require (e.g. proof of identity).

The information Brightsource hold may contain details of another person. In these instances, we may need to seek their consent before we can provide that information to you. If consent is not given, personal details of the other person will be redacted before being supplied to you.

Please note that you may make a request for your personal data without completing the form(s). However, this must be in writing or by emailing our Data Protection Officers (contact details shown below). If you do not use this form, please provide all of the information requested below as this is needed to action your request. Missing information could result in a delay to the start of this process.
